The one great sensation of the week has been the news of the rescue of six members of the Greely Arctic Exploring Expedition, as follows: Lieut. A-W. Greely, Hospital Steward Henry Bierderbick, Sergt. David L. Brainard, Sergt. Francis Long, Sergt. Julius Fredericks and Private Maurice Connell. Seventeen of Licut Greely's party died of starvation, as follows: Licut James B. Lockwood, Licent, P. F. Kislingbury, Acting Assistant Singeon Octave Pavy, Serge, Raward Israel, Sergt, Winfield 8. Jewell, Sergt. Geo. W. Rice, Sergt. David C. Rulston, Sergt. Hampden S. Gardiner, Sergt. Wm. H. Cross, Sergt. David Lian, Sergt. Joseph Elison, Corp. Nicholas Salor, Private Charles B. Henry, Private Jacob Bender, Private Wm. Whisler, Private Wm. A. Ellis, Private R. R. Schneider, Hunter Jans Edward and Frederick Shorley Christiansen. The tidings were first communicated in a dispatch to Secretary Chandler, dated St. Johns, N. F., at 9 o'clock on the morning of Thursday last, stating that the ships Thetis, Bear and Loch Garry had arrived that day from West Greenland with the rescued men. The scene of the rescue was some five unles off Cape Sabine, in Smith's Sound, and the time, 9 o'clock at night. June 52. It appears that Greely atundoned Fort Conger on Aug. 9, 1883, and reached Baird's Inlet Sept 29 following. Having abandoned all his boats he drifted 30 days on an ice fice in Smith's Sound, and his permanent eamp was established on the 21st of October at the point where he was found. For nine months the perty, numbering 25 persons, subsisted on a scanty allowance of food brought from Fort Conger, and when these provisions were consumed they were forced to live upon boiled send-skin strips cut from their scal-skin clothing, lichens and shrimps, the latter of which had to be preserved in good weather when they were strong enough to make the exertion. At Lattleton Island there were 740 rations which they could have obtained but for the fact that the channel between the two islands and Cape Sabine did not close during the entire winter. The Greely party were in a very critical condition when resensed from their perilons situation and for severai days after. A delay of 48 hours in finding them would move been fatal to all now living. Lieut. Greely in his dispatch to the Secretery says: "The survivors over their lives to the indomitable energy of Capt. Schley and Lieut, Emery, who, precede by three and accompanied by five whaters, forced their vessels from L pernavik through Melvide Bay fate north water at Cape York with the foremost whalers. They gained a yard whenever possible and always held it. Smith's Sound was ero-sed and the party rescued during one of the most violent gales I have ever known. The boats were handled the party rescaled during one of the most variety gales I have ever known. They boats were handled only with immitteent risks, swamping four of us. from Marietta to Norris Junction. We were then unable to walk and could not have survived exceeding 24 hours. Jones, Chairman, Republican National Committee, 242 Fifth avenue, New York city, such sum as you may desire to contribute for the objects be-fore mentioned. A receipt for the same will be sent by return mail. The committee cheerfully calls the attention of every person holding any office, place, or employment under the United States or any of the Departments of the Government to the provisions of the act of Congress, entitled "An act to regulate and improve the Civil Service of the United States," approved Jan. 16, 1883, and states that its influence will be exerted in conformity therewith. Respectfully, B. F. Jones, Chairman. - The New York Republican State Committee have opened hendquarters at the Army and Navy Club in New York, in addition to their apartments at the Gilsey House,—Mr. Wm. Purcell, editor of the Rochester Union and Advertiser, has been granted a leave of absence at his own request. He states in his letter that he is unable to support the Democratic nominee for President.—The Labor interests appear to be uniting to secure the defeat of Cleveland. At a meeting of the Confederation of Labor Unions, held in this city last week, his vetoes of bills in-tended to beneat the workingmen were formally denounced.-The first Republican meeting of the campaign in Massachusetts was held at Boston on the 15th Inst., Gov. Robinson presiding. Senators Hear and Dawes and Hons. W. W. Crapo and W. W. Rice addressed the meeting. It was the largest political gathering that has ever been held in Bosion for many years. - On the same evening a rousing Republican mass meeting was held at the Grand Opera House, New York. Among the speakers were Wm. M. Everts and Senstor Hawley. The atter, in speaking of Gen. Logan, said: "Gen. U. 8. Grant says justice has never been done to John A. Logun. I know han well. He is an incorruptibic man. He is interested in no jobs and shares no plunder.—The following additional Congressional iontinations have been made: Arkansas: The mocrats of the third district of Arkansas neminated James J. The liabilities are $1,800,000 and assets $2,200,ers. The liabilities are $1,800,000 and assets $2,200,000. The depositors were largely the working classes.—The tanking house of A. & C. S. Harrison, of Indianapolis, has also suspended and receivers been appointed. On the 16th inst. it became known that the bank had great difficulty in taking care of its clearing house balance of $18,000, but Harrison, with a pretense of indignation, told the members of the clearing house to mind their own basiness, and returning to his bank mounted the counter and told the crowd of depositors that he knew that they had come for their money, but they could not have it; that he would pay only they could not have it; that he would pay only whom he pleased, and that they could not break him by a run. Then he took a stand by the paying teller and paid out only small amounts on some checks, while others were refused sitogether. It is now known that the reason he did not ask help from the other banks was that he had nothing to offer as collateral for it. It is said that the bank has absolutely to assets of value. The entire tax-able valuation of the property of the partners, in-cluding the bank and real estate, is only $47,000. The wives of the Harrisons, however, have considerable property. They are said also to own the bulk of the stock of the United States Encaustic Tile Company.—The opinion is openly expressed that the reported consolidation of the Bankers & Merchants and the Postal Telegraph Companies with the Baltimore & Ohio Telegraph Co. is premature.—The stockholders and voting bond-holders of the Cincinnati, Washington, & Balti-more Road have ratified contracts with the Marietta Mineral Railroad, which transfer to the latter to what is known as the "Old Line" 30 miles of road, which, beginning near Canaan, runs to Scott Land-

THE CONTINENT. The cholera epidemic in France continues to spread. Several cases have occurred in Paris, and there have been five deaths in the department of the lower Alps. It has been found useless to fumigate the railway stations, and the reports from the Interior are of the most gloomy description. According to Mr. Cook, the tourist agent, continental mists are returning to England terror-stricken, though some Americans are continuing their tours. The lear of being quarantined has as much to do, perhaps, with their returning, as the fear of the lisease itself. Toulon, where the disease broke out, still remains in an indescribably flithy condition. Fifteenth Corps Song.

The following copy of the song sung by the boys of the Fifteenth Corps the last year of the war, and published in many Northern papers in 1865, is sent to THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE by Comrade John D. Simmons, Adjutant of John Wood Post, Quincy, Ill., who thinks its publication now would be timely:

LOGAN AND THE FIFTEENTH ARMY CORPS. TUNE .- " The Kingdom am a Coming." Oh! did you see the flying Johnnies, Anywhere about this place; They took their guns and they left very sudden, When the blue coats gave them chase.

The rebs have heard of Johnny Logan, With the mustache on his face, There's not a rebel in Dixie nation But quickly gives him place. Chorus.-The Johnnies run, sha!

They'll fight us soon no more: They must have heard that Logan is a With the Fifteenth Army Corps,

Who has not heard of Johnny Logan, And his Bonny Boys in Blue; It does not need any stars to know 'em, They're known by what they do.
They don't go much on bread and butter,
For "hard-tack's" all the go; They've been all thro' this land of cotton, And going to Richmond, too.

Our Generals are all good at fighting, Brave Smith and Walcott, too; And when they see Pete Osterhaus coming The rebs look mighty blue. There's Gen. Woods and Gen. Hazen, And gallant Gen. Corse. Better fighting men never went in battle Or whip'd the rebels worse.

The Johnnies run, aha!

The Johnnies run, aha! Down South in Mississippi Valley, We cleaned the rebels out; We took their niggers and lots of cotton And put the rebs to rout. We marched across to Chattanooga, And put old Bragg to flight, He found there was no use in trying The Fifteeuth Corps to fight,

The Johnnies run, aha! Joe Johnston tried to stand at Dallas, But found it would not do, He could not cope with Johnny Logan And the Bonny Boys in Bine. Oh, did you see our Johnny Logan As he rode along the line? He waved his hat as he rode on a gallep And looked so mighty fine,

The Johnnies run, aha! On the twenty-eighth of last July The Johnnies made a charge; The Fifteenth Corps boys gave 'em a tanning. The rebel loss was large. Our fianking soon gave us Atlanta, And Johnny Hood looked blue; Says he, "Thi flank Old Birly Sherman,"

But Thomas put him through. The Johnnies run, aha! Then we made a strike thro' Georgia, Down to the Atlantic shore; Gen. Osterhaus took the place of Logan In the Fifteenth Army Corps.

A lively time we had near Macon,

It was at Griswoldville, The rels there were slain by thousands, For Walcott fought to kill. The Johnnies run, aha! You have heard of Gen. Hazen, And Fort McAlister; He took it with his Second Division

Of the Fifteenth Army Corps.
In the Oyster bods we found good living,
And we enjoyed it line;

And then, oh, what a follification When we opened the "cracker line." The Johnnies run, aha!

Old Hardee left Savannah City, The Mayor asked us in; We got thirty thousand bales of cotton, Tobacco, Rum and Gin. Gen. Sherman having got Savannah And the ocean for his base, Now, Johnnies, look out for South Carolina And Yankees on the chase.

The Johnnies run, aha!

Soon we'll be to the rear of Charleston, And knocking at the door,
Then look out for brave Johnny Logan
And the Fifteenth Army Corps.
The Fifteenth Corps is bound for Richmond,
To put the Rebellion down, And then they'll put us on Provost duty In that old rebei town.

The Johnnies run, aha! They'll fight us soon no more; They must have heard that Logan is a With the Fifteenth Army Corps.

HARPER'S WEEKLY has for many years maintained the twofold character of an acknowledged leader of public opinion, and of a family journal of the highest rank in point of literary and artistic excellence.

Independent of partisan control, it is the friend and advocate of all measures that tend to the purification of politics, to the establishment of Civil Service reforms, to the spread of knowledge and intelligence among the people, and to the general advancement of humanity. The Republican Party, as the organized political exponent of these principles has received its cordial sympathy and support; but HAR-PER'S WEEKLY has never surrendered into party keeping the right of private judgment, nor will it hesitate to criticise or condemn whatever, within or without party lines, may appear to be at variance with the fundamental principles of right.

HARPER'S WEEKLY believes the nomination of JAMES G. BLAINE to have been a grave political mistake, and that his election would, at this critical period of the nation's history, endanger the influence of Republican principles. It believes that the election of GROVER CLEVE-LAND, who, as the Governor of the State of New York, has evinced the executive qualities of a sagacious, unpartisan statesman, would promote the objects for which the Republican Party has contended, and he will therefore receive the earnest and cordial support of HAR-PER'S WEEKLY.

In literature, HARPER'S WEEKLY aims to furnish a rich variety of reading-matter, at once instructive and entertaining. Its serials, short stories, sketches, and poems, by native and foreign authors of popularity and distinction, give it a character unequalled among illustrated weekly journals. The most fastidious taste will find nothing in its pages to which objection can be made.

The illustrations in HARPER'S WEEKLY present an inexhaustible range of subjectstrenchant political cartoons and comics, artpictures, in the highest style of wood-engraving, portraits of eminent persons, sketches of domestic and foreign travel and exploration, graphic delineations of striking current events, will be printed next week, an admirably written out-door sports and games; in short, of everyskilful artist. HARPER'S WEEKLY is thus, from week to week, a pictorial chronicle of the

It will be the aim of its conductors in the future, as it has been in the past, to keep HAR-PER'S WEEKLY in the van of illustrated weekly journals and to present a constant improvement in all those features which have gained for it the confidence, sympathy, and support of its large army of readers. HARPER'S WEEKLY for July 19, will begin an illustrated serial story by the popular novelist Captain HAWLEY SMART, entitled " From

The Special Tribune Waterbury.

We take pleasure in announcing that, by special arrangement with the manufacturers, we are enabled to offer our readers a New Waterbury Watch of superior workmanship, designed solely for The Theorem and for sale exclusively by it. It is not only of a finer grade than the old Waterbury, but of a much more attractive pattern. The back of the case, which in the ordinary watch is plainly finished, is elaborately chased, and in style will compare favorably with the most costly work. Indeed, both as regards exterior appearance and interior workmanship, this Special Transport Waterbury is a TRUNG OF SPARTY. man sent to set up and test, the best Artesian and Common Well Tools and Special Tribung Waterbury is a THING OF SEAUTY.

THE WATCH AS A PREMIUM.

We will send our Special Tribune Waterbury, inclosed in a handsome satin-lined case and postage prepaid, to any address on receipt of ten NEW subscriptions of $1 each to The Tribune. These subscriptions need not all be sent in together, but may be forwarded as fast us obtained. When they reach the required number (10) the watch will be mailed to the sender. For 25 cents extra a fine nickel-plated chain with charm will be mailed with the test with any machine yet produced and do more work with same power, or no sale. Send for circular.

THE WATCH AND THE TRIBUNE. For $3.75 we will send to any address, postage prepaid, a copy of THE THEBUNE for one year and one Special TRESUME Waterbury. The watch will be sent to a different address if desired. For 25 cents extra we will furnish a fine nickel-plated chain.

THE WATCH ALONE Except in connection with subscriptions to The Tribune the price of our New Tribune Waterbury is uniformly $2.50. This includes cost of satin-lined case and postage, however. A fine nicket-plated chain will be mailed with the watch on receipt of 25 cents additional.

What is The Waterbury Watch?

The Waterbury is not in any sense a toy, but a time-keeper of an accurate character. It has a full-plate movement, with an improved regulator, and an improved stem wind. In its construction 57 wheels and separate parts are employed, and all are as perfect as special machinery and skilled workmanning can make them. The case itself is of nickel-silver, which always wears bright and clean, and is artistically chosed after our own special assign. So far as accuracy and durability are concerned the Waterbury is as serviceable associated it will run 24 hours and keep time equal to—the better grade of watches, and its lew price brings it within the reach of all. We are in receipt of numerous testimonials to that effect from subscribers to The Turauser who have personally tested its qualities. During the past year we have filled thousands of orders for the Waterbury, and it has given entire satisfaction. We guarantee its time-keeping qualities and the arrival of the watch at its destination in good running order.

Now is the Time!

We have just received another shipment of watches of our new design, and are prepared to fill orders as fast as gent us. Bear in mind that this style of watch can only be had by ordering directly from this office. Address-THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE.
